All Saints Sunday: Grieving with Hope

Behind every name we read at our All Saints service is a face, a story, a family, and someone we miss. Christians are not spared the pain of grief, nor do we need to pretend that death does not hurt. Yet we do not grieve without hope. The resurrection of Jesus Christ assures us that death will not have the last word. Those who die in Christ belong to Him still, and we await the day when He will return, raise the dead, and gather all His people to Himself forever. We grieve, but we grieve with hope.

Keep Watch – Matthew 25:1-13

Jesus tells us to "keep watch," because we do not know the day or the hour when He will return. But what does it actually mean to live watchfully? In the parable of the wise and foolish bridesmaids, Jesus gives us a picture of people waiting for the bridegroom, some prepared and some not. As we await Christ's return, He calls us not to fear or speculation, but to a living faith that receives His grace and is continually nourished by His Word and gifts. So how is your oil? Are you ready for the Bridegroom?

Faithful - Matthew 25:31-46

What if you looked at your life not simply as something God has given you, but as something God has entrusted to you? Your days, abilities, relationships, experiences, resources, and opportunities are treasures placed into your hands by a gracious Lord. Jesus' Parable of the Talents calls us to consider what we are doing with all that He has entrusted to us. Until our Lord returns, we are called to receive His grace, put His gifts to work, and live faithfully for His kingdom.

Christ the King Sunday

The church year concludes with a celebration of how all time will conclude: With Christ proclaimed as King over all. We celebrate the truth that He is King over all now, even though it may not seem so. But we follow a crucified King who rules and reigns in a crucified way.

November 25

Thanksgiving Worship

Join us for a special service of Thanksgiving on Wednesday, November 25 at 7:00 PM. This will be a communion service. We also ask that you bring an offering of a non-perishable food item for the Napa Food Bank.

November 29 - First Sunday of Advent

Preparing the Way: Watch!

Advent is about waiting for the Lord's coming. We celebrate His first coming and we look forward to his return, strengthened along the way by His coming to us in Word and Sacrament. Jesus calls His followers to "watch" for His return. But this is not a passive waiting, but rather an active hope.

November 6 - Memorial Service for Judie Arnett

We give thanks for the life and faith of our sister Judie Arnett, who passed from this earthly life into the presence of her Savior last month. A memorial service for her will be held on Friday, November 6 at 11:00 AM at the Chapel at Tulocay Cemetery (411 Coombsville Rd). All at St. John's are warmly invited to attend. Please continue to lift up her husband Dennis and the rest of their family in prayer as they grieve her passing.

November 7 - Memorial Service for John Pagliero

Our brother in Christ John Pagliero went home to be with the Lord last month, and a memorial service for him will be held in the St. John's sanctuary on Saturday, November 7 at 11:00 AM. All at St. John's are warmly invited to attend. Please pray that the Lord will comfort his loved ones as they grieve his passing.

St. John's Lutheran Church App Update

church center
by planning center

Our new church app has arrived! The Church Center App puts events, groups, updates, and church info all in one place. We're rolling it out in phases so it works well for everyone.

Phase 1: our church directory
Our church directory will be available in the app, which means that it can be updated in real time. We will also have a printed directory for those who would like to have one on hand. But first, we have to make sure everyone's info is right.

Here's what to do:

1. Watch your inbox. On October 30, we sent an invite to the email we have on file.
2. Tap the "Log in to Church Center" link and create your account.
3. Check your name, phone, email, and address. Fix anything that's off.
4. Don't see the invite? Check your spam folder. If your email has changed, let us know.

Need a hand?
We'll be in the back of the church after every service for the next few weeks. Stop by and we'll help you update your info on the spot. Bring your phone!

More phases are coming, and we'll walk you through each one.

December 2, 9, 16 - Advent Soup Suppers
Advent is just around the corner, and with it our Wednesday evening services - a midweek pause to breathe, reflect, and gather. And of course, no Advent Wednesday is complete without our tradition of soup suppers beforehand.

This is more than just a meal. It's a chance to sit shoulder-to-shoulder, share stories, laugh a little, and warm up together before stepping into the evening service.

Here's what to know:

- Soup suppers happen before each Wednesday service - December 2, 9, and 16.
- Gather your group, your family, or your "secret recipe squad" and think about hosting one of the suppers.
- We invite volunteers to help set up, serve food (several soups, salads, bread,, and a dessert or two) and help clean up. If you'd like to volunteer for one of the suppers, sign-ups will be available starting November 3 at the link in the E-Vine. You can also reach out directly to Josh Wright at joshwright@stjohnsnapa.org.

Let's make this Advent season one where the tables are full, the soup pots are stirred with love (and maybe a little friendly competition), and the midweek gatherings feel like the heartbeat of our community.

December 6 - 2nd Annual Christmas Encounter and Pageant
We are looking forward to holding another Christmas Encounter on Sunday, December 6. This event will feature a high-energy concert of beloved Christmas music with our Praise Band and Special Guests, the Christmas story brought to life in a pageant starring our very own kids, and a community celebration with dinner and special crafts for the children. More info to come!

December 20 - Christmas Singalong
Mark your calendars for a festive Christmas celebration and singalong at Pastor Mike and Teresa Schmid's' home (1701 Monarch Dr) on Sunday, December 20 from 4:00-7:00 PM Please bring a favorite hors d'oeuvre or dessert to share.

We also invite children and teens to perform a Christmas-themed musical piece of their choosing. If your child would like to play or sing at the event, please contact churchoffice@stjohnsnapa.org to sign up.

Meditation:
"As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts." (Isaiah 55:9)

MONEY MATTERS

God's Faithfulness

Throughout the Genesis account of the life of Joseph, one sentence keeps recurring: "The Lord was with Joseph." Joseph enjoyed many times of success and happiness and endured years of being forgotten and unjustly punished. In all these circumstances, God was with him, and Joseph knew it.

Another Biblical character whose life consisted of ups and downs was David. One moment his brothers are making fun of him and the next he's their hero and everyone else's as he slays the giant Goliath. One minute he's King Saul's favorite servant and the next he's being hunted down by the same man. Like Joseph, David knew God was with him. In his psalms, David pours out his heart to God. He holds nothing back as he tells God he is set upon on all sides by his enemies and feels deserted by God, but he always ends on a note of faith, thanking God for His presence and His eventual deliverance. God is faithful, even when we are not. His ways are so far above ours that we cannot comprehend them. We cannot imagine what He has in store for us, but we can be sure it is all for our good (Genesis 50:20).

Discussion Thoughts:
1. Have you ever been unjustly accused as both these heroes of faith were? How? Did you give thanks for your ordeal?
2. Have you had opportunity to be a "Jonathan" to someone else enduring difficult times? (See 1 Samuel 20.)
3. Read 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 and act on it.

Prayer:
O faithful God, You are the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow. You are ever faithful. There is nothing in all of creation that can separate me from Your love in Christ Jesus. Help me to give You thanks in all circumstances and to remain faithful to You. Use me to encourage others to give thanks and to remain faithful as well. Through Christ I pray. Amen.

A huge thank you to Kevin Mathison and all of the families who decorated their vehicles and helped put on the Trunk-or-Treat. A wonderful, and sugar filled, evening was had by all!

November will be a busy month for St. John's Lutheran School!

We start off the month with our Veteran's Day Chapel on Wednesday, November 11. We invite all Veterans to attend this special Chapel service with our students. One of our mothers, a Navy Veteran herself, Natalie Bettinelli, is helping to coordinate donations to the Veterans Home in Yountville. All Chapel donations for the month of November and our $5.00 Free Dress on November 7 will be going towards this endeavor. Thank you Mrs. Bettinelli and thank you for your service!

We will be finishing the first trimester on Friday, November 8. Parent Teacher Conferences will follow on Thursday, November 19 and Friday, November 20. What a blessing that our parents and teachers will be able to meet and to share the academic, spiritual, social, and emotional growth of each child. There will be no school on these days.

We invite you and your family to attend the school musical "Alice in Wonderland, Jr.". The performances will be held on Wednesday, November 18-Sunday, November 22. Under the direction of Sarah Kramer and Cindy Powers, over 60 St. John's Lutheran School students are busy learning lines, songs, and choreography. This will be an amazing performance. We hope to see you there!

On Sunday, November 22 through Tuesday, November 24, all elementary teachers and the four year old preschool teachers and staff, including Pastor Mike, will be attending the California- Nevada- Hawaii/ Pacific Southwest District Lutheran Educators Conference. This conference will take place in San Diego, CA. We look forward to a wonderful lineup of speakers and the opportunity for fellowship amongst other Lutheran educators. Please pray that this conference will be a learning experience for all of our teachers and for our safe travel.

I wish you and your family a blessed Thanksgiving.

"Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise;
give thanks to him and praise his name.
For the Lord is good and his love endures forever;
his faithfulness continues through all generations."
- Psalm 100:4-5

MISSION FARM

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN
MISSION FARM
Growing to Serve

Submitted by: Farmer Ted, AKA Pastor Ted

The season of harvest is a season for reflection and thanksgiving. Just like these men gathered around their pickup trucks loaded with fresh-picked produce from our Mission Farm heading in short order for the Napa Valley Food Bank, we feel a deep satisfaction for a job well done by our volunteers, and gratitude to God for his essential blessing upon it.

In that spirit, let me simply quote from a beautiful poem by Fred Pratt Green, set to a Welsh hymn in our Lutheran Service Book:

> For the fruits of His creation, Thanks be to God.
> For His gifts to ev'ry nation, Thanks be to God.
> For the plowing, sowing, reaping, Silent growth while we are sleeping.
> Future needs in earth's safe-keeping, Thanks be to God.
> In the just reward of labor. God's will is done.
> In the help we give our neighbor, God's will is done.
> In our world-wide task of caring For the hungry and despairing,
> In the harvests we are sharing, God's will is done.
> For the harvests of the Spirit, Thanks be to God.
> For the good we all inherit, Thanks be to God.
> For the wonders that astound us, For the truths that still confound us,
> Most of all, that love has found us. Thanks be to God.

Of all the gifts for which we are thankful to God, the greatest by far is that His love for us in Christ has found us!

The Give!Guide is returning, and the Mission Farm will be participating in it! It launches November 1 and will continue through December 31. I encourage you to log on to its website at CanDoGiveGuide.org. Look for St. John's Lutheran Mission Farm in the Community Section (or in the alphabetical listing). See the description of our mission and pictures that illustrate it. Give!Guide makes it easy to support us as well as others of your choice. You may give your gift to the Mission Farm through Give!Guide, or through the normal channels available to you at St. John's. Any gift earmarked for the Mission Farm will go to the Mission Farm account, not to the General Fund.

DISABILITY MINISTRY

Disability Ministry

Serving at the Special Fellowship Ministry Dinner

Special Fellowship Ministries serves the intellectually challenged and disabled individuals of Napa County. The ministry was formed for the purpose of providing these adults with new opportunities to participate in Christ-centered monthly gatherings, activities, outings, ministry participation and outreach projects.

Special Fellowship Ministries meets on the fourth Monday evening of each month in the social hall of First Presbyterian Church in Napa. Volunteers from local churches provide and serve dinner and participate with the attendees in Christian activities and fellowship.

St. John's Lutheran Church volunteers serve at the October fellowship dinner each year. The Disability Ministry Committee members and other St. John's friends plan and prepare the meal, and provide the special message and music for the event. St. John's volunteers for this year's October 26th spaghetti dinner for about 70 people were: Rebecca Lowe-Vitcus, Pam and John Foottit, Erika Boudreaux, Elora Stepp, Pastor Mike Schmid, Bill and Susan Clark, Sarah Santora, Elaine Zimmerman, (and Farmer Ted – pumpkin carver).

MANY THANKS TO ALL THESE FRIENDS WHOSE SERVICE ADDED JOY TO THE EVENING!

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Love One Another

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest" - Matthew 11:28

When Do We Need God's Love Most? Of course, we need that love every second of our lives. But at times God's love is especially precious to us, such as when:

- we lose a loved one
- life becomes so confusing that we do not know where to turn
- we are dealing with an illness, or caring for a loved one who is ill
- life becomes meaningless, and depression sets in
- going through a divorce or separation
- experiencing a spiritual crisis
- life changes such as birth, adoption, miscarriage, or infertility

At times like these, it is especially important to have someone who cares. Our congregation has Stephen Ministers who offer Christian caring for those in need.

Suffering on our own is not God's intent for us. Jesus promises "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest." (Matt 11:28) We can receive this promised rest when we turn to one another for comfort and help. God did not create us to be independent. We were created to be interdependent. God's Word is clear: "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suitable for him" (Genesis 2:18). The New Testament underscores this theme with more than 50 verses that contain the words "one another" such as "love one another, encourage one another, build up one another," and "pray for one another." We are to allow other people to love, encourage, build up, and pray for us.

Our Stephen Ministers know about receiving care. Many of them have received care themselves at some point in their lives – something that has motivated them to give care now. They know how difficult it is to ask for help, but they also know the great personal and spiritual growth and healing that follow. They know how to respond in a loving, caring, and nonjudgmental manner. They are equipped, ready, and waiting to provide the comfort and care God very much desires you to have.

If you find yourself now or in the future facing difficulties in life, do not suffer alone. Take the courageous step of seeking help. Open your heart to receiving God's love and grace through another person. Our Stephen Ministry offers the opportunity for a very confidential relationship with someone who will listen to you and provide you with the care and encouragement you need, helping Christ to bring rest to your weary, burdened heart.

To request the care of a Stephen Minister, contact Penni Cremen (707-483-9321) or Pastor Mike at the church office at 707-255-0119.
