"Leading people into a growing relationship with Jesus Christ, His followers, and His world."

My Shepherd

Psalm 23 has provided comfort and hope to the people of God for 3000 years. Our loving and faithful God is presented to us as the one who provides for us, leads us, refreshes us, comforts us, anoints us and welcomes. Jesus identified Himself as this gracious Savior.

His loving service of His flock centers in His laying down His life for us on the cross, only to take it up again in the resurrection. This Lent, we seek to grow as faithful followers of our good shepherd as we study the richness of Psalm 23.

Services will be at 7:00 PM on Wednesdays, with a soup supper at 6:00 PM in the Parish Hall.

		we repent of trusting elsewhere besides our Good Shepherd for all we need in life.
March 12	He Leads Me	"He makes me lie down in green pastures, He leads me beside quiet waters" (Psalm

Sundays in Lent

Why did Jesus come to be our Savior? Why was He born? Why did He live His sinless life? Why did He set His face toward the cross? Why did He suffer and die?

The Nicene Creed answers that question: "For us and our salvation." This year we are marking the 1700th anniversary of the Council of Nicaea which gave us the Nicene Creed. This statement is at the heart of the creed: Christ came for us, lived for us, died for us, rose for us.

Our Lent Sunday series this year is entitled "For Us." Each week we will focus on a different aspect of what Christ has done for us, and who He is for us.

Board of Directors Nominations

The Board of Directors is receiving Board nominations for the 2025-2026 fiscal year. There are nine members of the Board of Directors. Four of these positions are up for election this year. Board members serve for a two-year term, and can serve a maximum of three consecutive terms.

If you are interested in nominating someone (or yourself) for the Board of Directors, please download the form on the Board of Directors page on our website

(https://church.stjohnsnapa.org/about/our-board-of-directors) Also included is a nomination form to be completed and returned to the church office, BOD Chair Paula Schweiger, or Pastor Mike Schmid.

What are the responsibilities of a member of the Board of Directors?

The Board of Directors is the governing board for St. John's Lutheran Church and School. Its main duty is to ensure the fulfillment of St. John's Mission and Vision. It does this by holding the Lead Pastor accountable for implementing a ministry plan that pursues the mission and vision for our church and school and supporting him in the fulfillment of that plan.

The Board of Directors also prepares and maintains a policy manual (available on the website on the Board of Directors Page) that defines the goals of the congregation, the relationship between the Board and the Lead Pastor, the limitations on the Lead Pastor, and the way in which the Board will carry out its duties. The Board members do not represent any particular group or constituency in the church. Rather, the Board acts on behalf of the entire St. John's ministry, especially as it confesses its purpose through the Mission and Vision statement.

What are the qualifications to serve on the Board of Directors?

The By Laws state that Board members must be committed to the mission and vision of St. John's Lutheran Church and School. Therefore the ideal board member is someone who is:

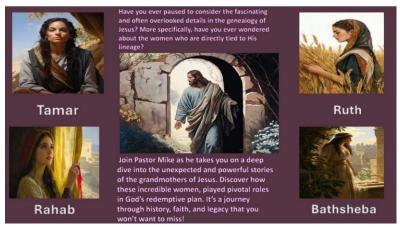

- Faithful in Worship
- Regularly in the Word: Bible Study or Small Group
- Active in service: Serving in a ministry of the congregation
- Supportive of tithing: Either tithing or working toward it.
- Strong support for the Mission and Vision
- Strong support for the governance structure
- Able to see the big picture of the church's mission

Both the By Laws and the Policy Manuel are available on the St. John's Lutheran Church website: https://church.stjohnsnapa.org/about/our-board-of-directors

How do I nominate someone for the Board of Directors?

There will be a Board Information Forum on Thursday, April 3 at 7:00 in the Library for those who are interested in being nominated for the board. This forum is also open to anyone who just wants to learn more about the governance polity of St. John's, and how the Board works.

Nomination Forms are available in the E-vine, in the church office, or by coming to the forum. These forms are to be returned to Board Chair Paula Schweiger or Pastor Mike Schmid by May 15.

Pastor Mike is continuing a study of the unlikely women who are included in Jesus' genealogy in Matthew 1. It was very unusual at that time to include women at all in a genealogy. But in this case, the women whom Matthew chose to include are even more unlikely because of their backgrounds, their stories, and their ethnicities. We will also be discussing why Matthew included their stories and what the Holy Spirit is saying to us today through these accounts. We meet in Room 8 at 11:00 on Sunday.

Meditation:

"Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." (Matthew 6:19-21)(ESV)

Becoming Rich

Through the working of the Holy Spirit, Christians understand that riches do not consist of money. In fact, riches have nothing to do with money. We can have very little money and be very rich or be very wealthy and be impoverished. True riches have to do with a right relationship with Jesus Who brings us happiness, satisfaction, joy, love and peace. Material possessions do not constitute real riches.

Material things are transitory. What we possess materially is subject to loss in a variety of ways. Our wealth can be lost in the stock market or through rust, obsolescence, and thievery. No matter how much money we may have, we have no way of guaranteeing that it can be kept safe and secure.

Money can be lost, stolen, or its purchasing power lost through inflation. Investments can decline in value and businesses can fail. Our property can be burned or robbed. All material things can be gone quickly. Even if our material things stay with us, we will eventually leave them, because, at the end, we can take nothing with us.

So, if we want to be rich, it cannot be on the basis of material things. Things of this world are much too precarious a foundation on which to build a life. If we are to be rich, we have to turn away from material things and turn toward Christ. In our Scripture reading, Jesus tells us to "store up for yourselves treasures in heaven." If we want to get really rich, we have to start storing up riches in heaven.

In order for us to store up treasures in heaven, we first need to love God with all of our heart, soul, and strength and love our neighbors as ourselves. To store up treasures in heaven, we need to loosen our grip on things of this world. We need to learn to be content with what we have rather than always wanting more worldly things.

Through faith, we are rich. As Christians, we receive the riches of eternal life with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Discussion Thoughts:

- 1. Why do people worry so much about not having enough money?
- 2. Why don't material things provide lasting happiness?
- 3. Why is it important to remember that the only thing that we take to heaven is ourselves?

Prayer:

Lord, You are the provider and controller of all things. Help me to put my trust and faith in You rather than in worldly things. I thank You for Your wonderful love that was shown through Your Son, Jesus. In Your precious name, I pray. Amen.

ATTENTION ALL CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY STUDENTS!!

The congregation will now accept applications for student grants for the 2025-2026 academic year. All members of St. John's who plan to attend any of our seven synodical universities or our two seminaries are eligible to apply. All you have to do is send a brief note to St. John's Ev. Lutheran Church, ATTN: Tim Kramer, or an e-mail to tkramer@stjohnsnapa.org, announcing your intent to enroll in the 2025-2026 academic year.

All applications must include the following information:

- a) Your Name
- b) School Name
- c) Student ID or Account # (if returning student)
- d) Degree you are pursuing
- e) Year and Level of study (e.g. Junior year, Undergrad; 5th year, teacher certification, or student teaching; Graduate studies)
- f) Attending Fall Term or Spring Term (or both)
- g) Briefly explain why you're attending Concordia and how you plan to use your studies/future vocation to shine the light of Christ and to witness for Jesus as His kingdom representative in the world.

Deadline for applications is March 31, 2025. Actual grant amount to each student is undetermined but will be based, in part, upon the number of students requesting assistance. So, if you are considering attending a synodical university--even if you have not made a final decision--please send a brief note informing us of where you are in your decision process so that we can plan accordingly.

Pastor Ted is never lost for words. Farmer Ted is, however. What's to say about the Farm these days? Pretty quiet out there. Rain and very wet grounds keeps us home. A few venture out when weather permits to address whatever needs addressing. Meanwhile, the fields rest. Let the volunteers do so as well.

But that will be changing very soon. Already a stretch of warm days portend sap rising in the trees and soon blossoms and leaves appear. Soon someone will need to fire up Mr. Kubota to begin tilling the fields to get them ready for planting. Already seeds are being planted indoors under grow lights for seedlings to plant as soon as frost is no longer a threat in April. Nature may yet rain on our parade, or worse, a late frost may threaten to kill our enthusiasm and seedlings set out too soon. Still, our blood is beginning to stir again preparing us for action.

Watch for "All Hands on Deck" messages from Ron Johnson or myself to appear soon. For when it is safe to plant, or when irrigation lines need to be set, or when other preparatory tasks cry out to be done, we will need many volunteers to appear and give us a hand. Working together can be lots of fun, good fellowship, and provide the satisfaction of knowing that you are helping to make a difference in the lives of people facing hunger even in this fruitful land of ours.

~Pastor (Farmer) Ted

Stephen Ministry -- Keeping Confidences

"Reckless words pierce like a sword, but the tongue of the wise brings healing."
Proverbs 12:18

Confidentiality is a cornerstone of Stephen Ministry. It gives care receivers the reassural need so that they can risk revealing to their Stephen Ministers their deepest thoughts and details they might not be able to discuss with anyone else. It is through the sharing of innermost feelings that God can work the miracle of healing, restoring faith and hope to care receivers' lives. Without the assurance of confidentiality, most care receivers would have a difficult time opening up, which would impede the healing process.

Think about the importance of confidentiality in your day-to-day relationships.

When someone shares a personal feeling, a thought that is troubling him or her, or something for which he or she might feel guilty, it might be tempting to pass along that information. Even when motives are noble (for instance, wanting to pass the information along as a prayer request), it could be damaging or painful to the person who first shared the information.

Confidentiality is a valuable standard of conduct for everyone – not just those involved in our Stephen Ministry. Confidentiality promotes trust, builds one another up, and encourages healing in a Christian community.

A Stephen Minister is ready to meet with you on a weekly basis to listen, care, provide emotional and spiritual support, and remind you of Christ's presence in your life. The care you'll receive is encouraging and confidential.

If you, or someone you know, would like to learn more about connecting with a Stephen Minister, please contact Penni Cremen (707-483-9321) or Pastor Mike in the church office (707-255-0119). Copyright © 2020 by Stephen Ministries, St. Louis

Disability Etiquette

It is very common to be communicating or interacting with a person who has a hearing impairment. Some of you reading this article may know a lot about hearing loss, because you have experienced it yourself. You may be a person who has lost a lot of your ability to carry on a friendly conversation with a friend when you are in a crowded environment, or you may now find it very difficult to communicate on a phone call.

It may be difficult for you to fully participate in worship services because you may not be able to pick out the melody line in hymns and songs, or you find it difficult to hear the sermon or the prayer requests. Others live with a spouse who mishears even simple comments, or you frequently discover that the two of you are talking about totally different subjects! It is easy to get in the habit of not communicating at all with a person with hearing impairment for the simple reason that you think the person with the disability will be embarrassed by having to frequently ask you to repeat what you just said. Perhaps you, as a person who has good hearing ability, might even decide that it's not worth the effort to have a conversation with someone with hearing challenges. Rather than be discouraged, please take note of these practical techniques listed below, and use them when talking with people who have hearing impairment. These reminders are also good advice when speaking with people with full hearing ability! It's simply good etiquette!!

Hearing Impairment

- Attract the individual's attention before trying to communicate.
- Be sure the light accentuates your face and does not glare in the individual's eyes.
- Face the individual and speak at normal pace and pitch.
- Look and talk directly to the person, even if a sign language interpreter is present.
- Some individuals may ask you to speak more slowly so they can benefit from lip reading.
- Use meaningful hand and body gestures.
- Be patient. You may need to repeat yourself to be understood.
- Remember, for those who are hard of hearing or are fully deaf, language is largely a visual activity. If they can't see your mouth, they can't "hear" you!
- If you have difficulty hearing and participating in the worship service because of hearing impairment, please talk with a person at the sound booth for information about the hearing loop in the sanctuary at St. John's or contact Elaine Zimmerman or the church office.
